

36 Shaping a New Partnership
The economic ties that have linked India and the UK for over two centuries have now matured. India has emerged as a major investor in Britain. R Joshi profiles the changing equations

12 Building on an Opportunity
The recent liberalisation of norms for foreign investment in realty heralds a surge of FDI in the industry. Many construction majors have evinced interest. Yogi Aggarwal reports

16 Drop by, it's Good for Your Health
Many foreigners are checking into speciality hospitals which offer world-class surgery, availing of the cost benefits. S Mrinal and Nandu Manjeshwar track the trend

20 Turbo-charging the Mahindra Group
Mahindra & Mahindra is the fourth largest tractor maker in the world. But Anand Mahindra wants his company to grow bigger and go global. What are his imperatives? Darrel Philip finds out

24 What brings Walmart to India?
The global retailer buys products worth $1.2 billion annually from India. Now it seems interested in setting up shop here, as CEO John Menzer's recent visit underscores. What is the India lure? Anu Saraf reports

28 Made for India
Many MNCs have realised that merely bringing in global brands cannot ensure substantial marketshares. They need to develop products specially made for Indian conditions. Bhakti Chuganee reports

32 The Persuaders are Coming
The influx of the global communications giants has churned the advertising industry with most Indian agencies being acquired. Austin Lobo examines the metamorphosis of the business of persuasion

42 No Laughing Matter
The 3D animation business is a $70 billion industry. Leveraging on their low costs, Indian companies are trying to get a share of that huge pie. Are they succeeding? S Mrinal finds out

46 India: Cisco's New Global Node
Cisco was the among first global companies to identify India as a major market for its network products. And it has now leapt to the leadership position. How has Cisco achieved this distinction? R P Srikanth reports

54 Nirvana on the Fast Track
Life aboard the luxurious Deccan Odyssey is a never-ending journey of celebration as it rolls through Maharashtra. Gustasp and Jeroo Irani exult in the experience: culinary delights and historic locales

UPDATE 8

A round-up of news about India Inc.

DOCUMENT 50

Excerpts from the CII-KPMG report on the television industry

INDIAWATCH 58

Economic Indicators

EVENTS & CONFERENCES 60

Participate in the India story