

Enabling a Billion Dreams

*Urban housing development development in Powai, Mumbai.
Similar projects dot the skyline in all major Indian cities and their suburbs.*

Driven by positive growth in the economy, real estate in India is booming. Government approval to 100% FDI in integrated townships, commercial infrastructure, SEZs and hospitality and tourism sectors is generating huge investor interest.

Over the coming 5 years, the demand for 20 million houses, 200 million square feet of retail floor space and over 50,000 star-category hotel rooms will add another US$ 50 billion to real estate growth.

To know more about India, log on to www.ibef.org